Footnotes:

- (1) Shares subscribed for in the Memorandum shall be deemed to have been allotted as at the date of incorporation under section 54(6) and must be included in the first return.
- (2) Where the capital of the company is divided into shares of different classes, the class of shares to which each share comprised in the allotment belongs is to be stated. In the case of the first return, shares subscribed for in the Memorandum are to be included in this return and identified as such.
- (3) If the allotment is made for shares fully paid or partly paid-up otherwise than in cash pursuant to a contract in writing, the company shall lodge with the return the contract evidencing the entitlement of the allottee or a copy of any such contract certified in accordance with regulation (74).
- (4) Where, by virtue of section 54(2), a company is not required to furnish the particulars under paragraph 3 of this form, the certificate to be given by all companies must include paragraph (e) set out thereunder.
- (5) Where the capital of the company is divided into shares of different classes the division of the authorized capital into shares of various classes must be specifically stated.

DIRECTIONS:

In making a return of allotment under section 54 of the Companies Act, 1965 it is to be noted that:

- (a) where shares are allotted for consideration other than cash, the return should be accompanied by the contract [see section 54(3) and (4)] or if there is no contract in writing, by a statement made in accordance with Form 25;
- (b) when a return includes several allotments made on different dates, the dates of only the first and the last of such allotments should be entered at the beginning of the form, and the lodgement of the return should be effected within one month of the first date;
- (c) when a return relates to one allotment made on a particular date, that date should be inserted.
